3-1 STOCK FOOTAGE THE CITY HOMELESS PEOPLE STANDING IN FOOD LINES, BROKEN EXPRESSIONS LOST IN THOUGHT. 3-2 FRED DRIVING AROUND LOS ANGELES IN HIS STATION WAGON ANGLE ON FRED &amp; LYNETTE CLOSE ANGLE ON FRED FRED AT WORK VARIOUS ANGLES FRED &amp; LYNETTE TOGETHER IN A PARK FRED SITTING AT A PARK BENCH THUMBING THROUGH THE CLASSIFIED	NARRATOR One out of every four homeless people has a part-time or full-time job. Among the homeless you'll find teachers with Masters Degrees, social workers, construction laborers, lawyers, and truck drivers like Fred McCardy. After heart attacks, Fred lost his job and his home. Now, he and his wife spend their nights sleeping in a car. For Fred and Lynette, the greatest fear of many homeless parents came true...their two little girls were taken away from them. &lt;Interview clip with Fred McCardy&gt; Recently, Fred was hired as a security guard, but they can only use him a few hours a week. His wife works part-time as well, but together, they'll barely make enough to buy food let alone pay first and last months rent for an apartment. COMIC RELIEF...It's no joke...Call now.
